SFChronicle JAN 27 1973

Kissinger Will Stick With Nixon

Washington

Henry A. Kissinger said yesterday he is staying at the White House as President Nixon's chief foreign policy adviser.

When told by a reporter that Harvard University has set a deadline of February 5 for him to return to his teaching post or to sever his academic ties, Kissinger said, "What makes you think I would want to go back?"

He said he has no intention of leaving the White House and said of authorities at Harvard: "It takes six months to get them to agree on anything."

Whereupon a reporter asked, "Why did it take four years to negotiate an end to the Vietnam war?"

Kissinger made no reply.

United Press